THE Beatrice Exchange bank was opened on the 10th.

SLUGGER JOHN L. SULLIVAN, was billed to give an entertainment at Seranton, Penna., last week, but a rain storm broke up the show.

C. D. CRAMER, a brother of A. H. Cramer has been nominated by the republicans of Red Willow county for the office of county clerk, and has the best of a chance of being elected.

Two or three gentlemen into whose pockets prohibitory tariff legislation has put millions of the people's money are talking of endowing colleges.

A MILWAUKEE man, writing in regard to seed corn bought in Nebraska, last spring, says: "You no doubt would like to hear what success we had with our Nebraska seed corn, and the prospects of coming crop."

JOHN WELBORN, candidate for sheriff, L. Lee Johnson, candidate for Coroner, and Page T. Francis, candidate for Surveyor, are pretty sure to get there.

In another column will be found the proceedings and ticket of the People's Convention. The nominations made are good ones, and unless the voters are inclined to cast a straight ticket, a few of the Republican nominees will have a hard road to travel.

THE President will send in to the Senate the names of 750 or 800 postmasters during the next season of Congress. Of these 300 hundred have been appointed since Congress adjourned and the commissions of 300 presidential postmasters will expire during the season.

People's Convention.

This convention met on Saturday pursuant to call, and made the following nominations, viz:

- For Representative, R. S. COOLEY. For County Judge, HENRY BAXTER. For County Clerk, S. W. STILGEBOUER. For County Treasurer, GEORGE A. HUNTER. For Sheriff, JOHN W. WELBORN. For Supt. Public Instruction, MISS ADA P. BUCK. For Coroner, DR. L. L. JOHNSON. For Surveyor, PAGE T. FRANCIS. For County Commissioner, H. H. PICKENS.

The proceedings of the convention were very harmonious and many persons believe the ticket nominated will be elected.

Indianola, Oct. 15, 1883.

THE following editorial from the Omaha Bee contains so much more good sense and solid wisdom than that erratic journal usually prints that we produce it in our columns.

The nominating conventions have done their work and the judicial canvass may be said to have fairly opened.

Party politics, strictly so called, does not or ought not to enter into the question of who shall fill the seat of the supreme bench.
